Modern day witch Summer needs to figure out why her long-term boyfriend's become so distant.

Her best friend Kat is battling to forget about her ex and sort her life out.

Things are complicated enough for both of them - but then Summer meets Tom, and Kat meets Alex. Tom is the town's building planning officer and the environmental enemy as far as green-living Summer is concerned.

Architect Alex is in charge of the controversial new housing development that Kat and all the locals have been campaigning against.

Will the girls be tempted to fraternise with the enemy? Can they allow themselves to get involved with the men responsible for destroying the town's beautiful meadows by building executive homes on them? And if they do, will they be brave enough to admit it to each other?

In desperation Summer decides to break the rules and call on her magical powers for help but she might just have made matters even worse...

Is everything falling apart or does life (and magic) work in mysterious ways?
