Do you believe that the people in our lives, we knew in our last? That everyone and everything is connected, and nothing is coincidence?

Billian Baker's fascinating and ironic journey begins when he wakes up on a kibbutz in Israel with no memory. The next 40 years of his life are spent searching for answers, not only for who he was, but for what he is.

Jordana Fireborn is a newly discovered witch. During her path to enlightenment, she meets others like herself in an incredibly peculiar way. Her thirst for the truth, and unusually open mind, help her to connect with people from her past, present, and past lives. As time goes on, Jordana, along with the help of her boyfriend Ari, uncover the truth about Billian - that he has been a part of their lives for much longer than they ever imagined possible, interfering in unthinkable ways. Billian's scheme eventually unravels and backfires, and connects Jordana and Ari to many others - from all of their pasts...
