A Sword in the River Kym

Descendants of the original people of Earth live on a beautiful and safe island. Ioann has travelled to the library at White City only to find the city under attack from raiders. He escapes the destruction of the city and begins the journey home. Cian must detect and battle an evil that is growing in his community while balancing his duty to respond to an even greater evil threatening all of the people on the island. Liam is on the mainland to scout the power and intention of the Protector and his community. Paul receives the increasingly disturbing information and is faced with deciding the action he and his people will take. The men must risk their own lives and beliefs to confront the evil threatening their way of life.
