My Heartfelt Letters To Santa shows children, as young as 3, 4, or 5 and as old as teenage, that there are better ways of writing to Santa than just sending a laundry list of things they want. It is a how-to guide written in language easy for young minds to grasp, yet it shares concepts that are valuable to letter writers of any age. Key Features of the book include: -Beautiful Stationary-like pages for children to write their letters on. Letters are perforated. -A section on writing the letter, including how to create a Wish list, what to say and how to say it. -Wish list for gifts -Sample letters to give kids models of what their letter might look like - Tips on getting on and staying on Santa's "Nice" list -Tips on how to stay off the "Naughty" list *Sturdy design so the book and letters last for years and years The book is designed to become a keepsake journal that children and their families will love for years to come.
