You desire success. You have great potential. Yet something seems to stand between you and your goals. Your solution might just be right under your nose - locked up in THE STORY OF YOU. In 1967, the story of Pelè the soccer player was so powerful that it stopped the carnage and horror of an African civil war. I was named after the man, and the myth is with me still. 'Story as power' remains one of the most important lessons of my life. If a story can stop a war, your story can change your destiny. Using stories and analogies from business, sports, and psychology, THE STORY OF YOU presents narrative as your key technology for self leadership and transformation. You will learn how to: * Uncover your life's true purpose and passion * 'Practice' your way to lasting self leadership and success * Unleash your full potential for high performance at work
