Calm & Storm (The Night Horde SoCal Book 6) Susan Fanetti
THE NIGHT HORDE SOCAL SERIES CONCLUDES.

Ronin Drago has always been a fighter, a warrior, a soldier. Not one to take the lead or the limelight, he stands stalwart with his brothers, but he keeps his own counsel.

The Night Horde SoCal has been taking too many hits lately, and he fears that they are cracking under the strain. Every run seems to bring more chaos and less clarity, and Ronin no longer sees the purpose in their fight. But he is a loyal man, and long ago the club gave him a family when he had no other, when he came home from war to an empty life that had once been full of love and promise.

Lorraine Milligan loved the young man that Ronin had been in that long ago time, and she loves him still. But she broke his heart and left his life empty. She's regretted it ever since, but she never thought to have the chance to make amends.

In the years since she ran from their young love, she has made a good life, successful and content, but shadowed by her regret, her Great Lost Love.

When their paths cross unexpectedly and the old spark between them rekindles, they have a chance to remake a future together. But first Ronin must come to terms with the full dimension of what he lost when Lorraine left him.

And then they both must decide if his club and their love can fit together at all.

This volume also includes Home & Safe, the epilogue novella to the Night Horde SoCal series.

Note: explicit sex and violence.
