“I'm a huge James fan and this is a riveting novel.” Trina

“It's the first important novel in English to turn on a child custody case, and more timely now than ever. This family is blended in all the wrong ways, and little Maisie—whose age is never specified—has to puzzle it all out.” Michael Gorra, Publishers Weekly

“However, it is Maisie herself who makes this novel a delight to return to regularly. James called her his “interesting small mortal” and, while this hints at her vulnerability, it tells next to nothing of her charm and nerve in the face of betrayal, which are heroic. Her unflinching character, her lack of misgivings, her indulgences, her capacity for joy and above all her faith in the idea of faith itself are wildly attractive on the page. I love her.” Susie Boyt, The Independent

“No “subject” is as affecting as little Maisie. Left to the devices of her own brave imagination, she is James's real masterpiece.” Mira Sethi, Wall Street Journal

WHAT MAISIE KNEW is a unique and beautiful novel in a beautifully presented edition specially designed for kindle. This is one of Henry James' masterpieces which will stay with you forever.
