Education is inescapably religious. Ultimately we have only two kinds of education humanistic in terms of Genesis 3:5 every man is his own god, and Christian, in terms of scripture, in terms of the triune God. There can be no halting, indecision as we face the alternative. If we make the wrong choice, God will be no more favorable to us then he was to the compromisers of the Old Testament, who compromised with Baal and Baal worship. The Great Education Decision exposes the six major secular worldviews that permeated into every corner of the Christian life including education. Most Christian schools, homeschools and Christian curriculum have been shaped by and, therefore, teach some of the same humanistic presuppositions of the public school system. In the Great Education Decision, you will learn: 1. How to identify the ungodly worldview that your children are being exposed to in their current educational system. 2. How to make sure that your child's education is based upon a purely biblical worldview. 3. How to decide which Christian curriculum is best for your child.
