Aspects of Teaching Secondary Modern Foreign Languages: Perspectives on Practice Ann Swarbrick

This lively and inspiring collection of readings is divided into three sections: 'Developing teaching strategies and effective classroom management' covers all major aspects of classroom practice; 'Planning, evaluating and assessing MFL learning' is a guide to the day to day requirements and practicalities of MFL teaching; 'In search of a wider perspective' considers how MFL teaching might develop and expand, and its place outside the classroom. Fully engaged with teaching and learning MFL at a practical level, it illustrates concepts and good practice through a broad range of classroom-based examples and case studies.

Issues covered in this book include:

- maximising potential
- engaging pupils in their learning
- developing listening, reading and oral skills
- use of information communication technology
- assessment and differentiation
- broadening the content of MFL lessons
- role play in the language class
- MFL beyond the classroom.
