Contemporary Christian music plays over the sound system. Actors portraying druggies, alcoholics, and rebels pantomime destructive behavior, and within the four minutes it takes to get to the end of the song, the characters have all changed their ways and come to the cross. Seen a play like that? So have we. That's why we think it's time for something fresh - some new, exciting ways to present the gospel to a generation tired of the cliché and predictable. Enter - Power Skits for Youth and Young Adults These field-tested skits are proven to make people laugh, cry, and most important, gain new understanding of Christ. Modeled after Jesus' storytelling style, these scripts are multidimensional, with something for everyone: the casual passerby, the nominal Christian, and the truly searching Christian. Each skit deals with an issue important to youth and young adults, such as knowing God's will, prayer, authentic Christianity, dating and friendship, and the assurance of salvation. With designated themes (and very few props required), it's easy to include drama in your programs and bring the Word of God to life at Sabbath school, camp, school worships, or vespers. Youth and young adults need to know that God is relevant. Don't just tell them. Show them.
