When Evil comes knocking do you dare answer ? There's a little evil in all of us — that part of the human soul that doesn't care if God is watching. It starts with a faint tap. Ignore it. If you're lucky it will go away. Daniel Haley isn't one of the lucky ones. Evil kicks the door down and makes itself at home. While cleaning the attic, Daniel finds a box labeled "Dark Stuff." Hidden beneath the dust and cobwebs are relics of childhood scares — books about vampires and werewolves, slasher movies that kids shouldn't watch. The thing that stands out is a spirit board which contributed to the scariest night of Daniel's teen years. Looking back, Daniel can't help but laugh. He no longer believes in the supernatural. Ghosts are just products of wild teenage imagination. Daniel decides to inject a little fear into the stale relationship with his girlfriend Jess by scaring her with the harmless toy. But you never know what will happen when you play with The Dark Stuff.
