Notes on the Parables of Our Lord TRENCH

This book has long been ranked first among English language studies of the parables. Trench's treatment of the parables is unsurpassed not only in depth of spiritual insight but also in clarity of practical applications. He examines many facets of each parable and then deftly refines the lessons to be learned. This revision of the 1861 edition has been carefully simplified and revised to make it usable for the general Christian public.
