Teaching Behind Bars Scott Wier

A high school teacher is assigned to a maximum security jail. His class, seasoned young offenders aged 16-18 awaiting formal sentencing. He is locked in a room, together with the inmates for four hours a day with a phone as the sole means of communication with the guards. From 1995-2000 Scott Wier taught (and documented) not only his first-hand experiences with the adolescent prisoners, but their own written accounts and thoughts about living behind bars, and on the streets. These were the carjackers, the drug peddlers, the molesters, the rapists, the assailants, the home invaders, the murderers, the psychopaths, the addicts, and the thieves. 'Teaching Behind Bars' is a true account which consists of an anthology of vignettes and student writings that will amuse, entertain, trouble, shock, and enlighten any reader wanting an inside glimpse into the lives of incarcerated youth.

Bruce Smith:

As a student exactly feel bored to be able to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library in order to make summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just small students that has reading's heart and soul or real their leisure activity. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important to suit your needs. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Teaching Behind Bars can make you feel more interested to read.
