William Shakespeare was born (probably) in 1564 in the center of England, is considered the greatest poet, playwright and writer of Anglo-Saxon culture. He is known for his mastery of poetic and literary forms; its ability to represent aspects of human nature is often put forward by its fans.

Eminent figure in Western culture, Shakespeare continues to influence artists today. It is translated into many languages and his plays are regularly performed around the world. Shakespeare is one of the few playwrights who practiced comedy than tragedy as well.

Shakespeare wrote thirty-seven dramas between the 1580s and 1613, but the exact chronology of his plays is still subject to discussion.

Shakespeare's plays are full of love lost and gained.
