That's the advertisement Henry Huggins has been running in the newspaper for three weeks. But so far it hasn't brought Henry's dog home. And despite his father's kind offer, Henry doesn't want to get another dog. He only wants Ribsy--the friendliest and most companionable dog in the whole world. Ribsy wants to come home, too. People have been nice to him, and he's having lots of adventures--from a violet-scented bubble bath to being mascot of a second-grade class. But poor Ribsy is tired of being lost.
