In this book, young men studying for the priesthood share their reflections on the Stations of the Cross. The seminarians wrap their reflections with such a simple and bite-size language that it is easy for young readers to chew on. The winning artworks of the “2012 Stations of the Cross Drawing Contest” accompany these reflections. These young artists and young seminarians form quite a team! The best of creed, color, catechism, crayons, and creativity are all bound in this book to help young readers accompany Christ during Lent.
