Beyond Iron Mountain: Was Report from Iron Mountain real or hoax? Arturo Raymond

In 1961, President John F. Kennedy became interested in what would happen in a world of peace, instead of a world constantly at war. He then ordered a "Top Secret" study, Document 7277, to see what the possible outcome might be. What JFK thought was an academic exercise somehow metastasized into a blueprint to bring America into a "New World Order." The book Report from Iron Mountain is a favorite among conspiracy theorists, rejecting statements by the author, Leonard Lewin, that the book was really an elaborate hoax. This infamous hoax claims that governments intentionally wage wars to prevent political and economic collapse. One need only look at what has happened in our country, and the world, since that report to understand it was NOT a hoax, and that Report from Iron Mountain was almost a carbon copy of the very real Document 7277, a carefully crafted design for the destruction of America.
